WISHART'S COLUMN. THE REIGN OF TERROR AT AN END. A GREAT REMEDY FOR THE CURB OF THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES. More than Ten Thousand Persons Cured in One Year.

DR. L. Q. C. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL. It is the vital principle of the Pine Tree, obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the Tar, by which the highest medicinal properties are retained.

It is the only safeguard and reliable remedy which has ever been prepared from the juice of the Pine Tree. It invigorates the digestive organs and restores the appetite. It strengthens the debilitated system.

It purifies and enriches the blood, and expels from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds on the lungs. It dissolves the mucus or phlegm which stops the passages of the lungs.

Its healing principle acts upon the irritated surface of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain and subduing inflammation.

It is the result of years of study and experiment, and it is offered to the afflicted, with the positive assurance of its power to cure the following diseases, if the patient has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure: Consumption of the Lungs, Coughs, Sore Throat and Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Liver Complaints, Rheumatism and Bleeding Pills, Asthma, Hoop, Ing Croup, Diphtheria, &c., &c.

The array of the diseases of the lungs and throat will to the balsamic and tonic properties of Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial as the summer fog disappears before the fresh evening breeze. Its constituent properties, though simple, are powerful. From the very first the debilitated victim of noxious drugs realizes that he has found a friend.

A glow of warmth begins to pass through his chilled circulation. The pulse becomes natural and regular, and a buoyancy of spirits—the consequence of an assurance of returning health—comes upon the patient. The false cause, consumption, which the lungs retain anything of strength upon which to build, is dispelled by the Pine Tree Tar Cordial in a manner which thousands of grateful patients have felt it a duty as well as a pleasure to testify.

How many, who have died and left their children orphans, might have been living in blooming health had they but availed themselves of Dr. Wishart's simple remedies instead of the noxious poisons to which their conditions have yielded.

We are often asked, why are not other remedies in the market? The answer is, because the country has not been so fortunate as to have a physician who has found a friend.

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS. And Other Pulmonary Affections, EQUAL TO DR. L. Q. C. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL.

WE ANSWER: 1. It cures—not by stopping cough, but by loosening and assisting nature to throw off the unhealthy matter collected about the throat and bronchial tubes, causing irritation and cough.

2. Most of the noxious Remedies are composed of acrids, which, when they reach the lungs, become hardened, and the unhealthy fluid congeals and is retained in the system, causing disease beyond the control of our most eminent physicians.

3. The Pine Tree Tar Cordial, with its assistants, is preferable, because they remove the cause of irritation of the mucous membrane and bronchial tubes, assist the lungs to get and throw off the unhealthy secretions and purify the blood, thus essentially making the cure perfect.

Call at DR. L. Q. C. WISHART'S Great Family Medicine Store, No. 233 N. SECOND STREET, Philadelphia, and examine his file of certificates, and see the names and residences of hundreds and thousands who have been cured by his justly renowned remedies, who were once hopelessly given up to die. Hundreds of them reside in and around Philadelphia, and there is scarcely a city, town or hamlet in the United States but what contains parties who have been benefited by the Pine Tree Tar Cordial and Great American Dyspepsia Pills. These are facts which we can substantiate in a manner that will convince the most skeptical.

It is noteworthy that the certificates of cures effected by Dr. Wishart's medicines come largely from the most intelligent and cultivated people—people who do not condescend to be deceived, and who, first, feel themselves under a sense of duty, bound to seek what they have done for them; and to recommend them to others.

More than ten thousand cases have been cured during the past year, and we have not heard of a single failure and still the good work goes steadily on. Dr. Wishart's office is daily crowded by the afflicted, seeking advice and comfort, and the beauty of the whole arrangement is that it costs nothing. Moderate charges will only be made for the medicines actually employed in performing the cure.

A medical expert, holding honorable collegiate diplomas, devotes his entire time to the examination of patients at the office, and the beauty of the whole arrangement is that it costs nothing. Moderate charges will only be made for the medicines actually employed in performing the cure.

Price of Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial, $1.50 a bottle, or $11 per dozen. Sent by express. All communications should be addressed.

EQUITY! IMPRESSIVE INCIDENT IN LIFE INSURANCE! Practically Illustrating the Non-Forfeiture Law Governing THE

John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston, Mass. GEORGE P. SANGER, PRESIDENT. GEORGE B. AGER, SECRETARY. ELIZUR WRIGHT, ACTUARY.

The John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company PAID at their office, No. 150 South FOURTH Street, Philadelphia, on the 17th of November, 1870, to Mrs. Richard A. Douglas, residing Northeast Corner Sixteenth and Coates streets, Philadelphia, the policy for FIFTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS on her late husband, under the following circumstances:—

RICHARD A. DOUGLAS insured his life on May 3, 1869, for fifteen thousand dollars. He then paid for one year. He neglected his second payment, which was due on May 3, 1870. He died on September 3, just four months afterwards.

Now, this Company, by its charter, transacts all its business under the non-forfeiture plan; consequently Mr. Douglas's policy was in full force at his death. From the $15,000 was deducted merely the amount which he should have paid on May 3, with lawful interest added.

NOW OBSERVE THE CONTRAST! Mr. Douglas had fifteen thousand dollars additional insurance in other so-called non-forfeiting companies, and, as with us, had neglected his payments. These policies became forfeited and of no value because the payments were not made on the day when due! His policy in The John Hancock Mutual would not have expired until July 4, 1871.

We desire to make the advantages of the John Hancock so clear that any one contemplating insurance upon his life will avail himself of them. The wisest man has little knowledge of the changes which await him. He who feels the least need to-day of the non-forfeiture provision may be the most aided by it at some future time. It imposes no extra cost. Therefore, what can justify your neglect of it? In addition to this provision in our charter our conditions are liberal, rates low, plans popular, and responsibility undoubted. A careful investigation will convince an unbiased judgment that there is nothing desirable in life insurance which may not be secured in the JOHN HANCOCK.

For desiring reliable information on this important subject may obtain the same upon applying (either in person or by letter) to the subscribers. AGENTS AND SOLICITORS will at once perceive the advantages of associating with this Company.
